

JOB POSTING

Interim Cantor

Bet Torah Synagogue, Mt. Kisco, NY

- Do you have an engaging, enthusiastic and warm presence on the bimah and enjoy working in partnership with the rabbi and lay leaders of a Conservative congregation?
- Do you enjoy encouraging and supporting participation from congregants of all ages to create a joyous atmosphere for prayer and observance?
- Are you an effective and inspiring teacher for bar and bat mitzvah students and their family members in preparation for a meaningful celebration?

If your answers to the above questions are yes, we would like to meet you.

Bet Torah is seeking a dynamic interim cantor to continue our long-time cantor's vision for musical and Conservative liturgical leadership, empowerment of congregants, creation of a supportive environment that strengthens engagement among individuals and families in our community, and fostering a love of and lifelong commitment to Judaism.

Widely recognized as an extraordinarily vibrant community, Bet Torah is a growing Conservative congregation of over 500 families. We are a welcoming and egalitarian community led by inspiring and engaging clergy, dedicated lay leaders, and a strong professional team. The creative energy and grass-roots engagement of our members fuels our community spirit as together we pray, learn, share lifecycle events, support each other, educate our children, socialize, participate in cultural programs and commit to tikkun olam - repairing the world.

Please contact us for more information or send a résumé and a cover letter to: Bet Torah Interim Cantor Search Committee, clergysearch@bettorah.org.

Please note: members of the Cantors Assembly must apply through the Cantors Assembly.

Bet Torah is located in the heart of beautiful Northern Westchester, an exceptional place to live and work, in close proximity to New York City.

Attractive salary and benefits will be commensurate with experience.
