

Come Join Our Paired Learning Study Program

Connect with a friend or family member, near or far, by engaging in an exciting course of Jewish learning that you and your study partner choose.

Kick-off Orientation: Tuesday evening, March 12th @ 8pm
Group Sharing and Celebration: Saturday, June 8th (Erev Shavuot)

10 weeks of study over 12 weeks

How will each pair study? Any way you want: at home, in a coffee shop, at Bet Torah, or via Skype, Facetime or Google Hangout. If technology is a challenge, we will teach you how to meet face-to-face over the internet so you can study with your partner whether you are 5 miles or 5660 miles apart (New York to Tel Aviv: 5660 miles).

Topics - Each pair selects from one of the following 7 courses

- Bob Dylan: A Jewish Journey Between Home And Exile
- Shabbat Rituals: The Oldest New Way to Friday (4 sessions)
- Judaism: Identity, Pluralism And Peoplehood
- I Can't Believe It: What God, Prophecy, And Free Will Meant In The Past - And What They Can Mean To Us
- Am I Responsible?: An Exploration Of Jewish And Human Responsibility
- Kashrut: Why? What? How?
- The Balancing Act: Being A Jewish Parent (4 sessions)

Cost - $36 to $180 per person, depending on what you feel you are able to pay (Made out to Bet Torah, with "Paired Learning" in the memo).

LEARN MORE OR SIGN UP - Contact Diana Binger at lifelonglearning@bettorah.org or Mike Gordon at mrg113060@gmail.com to sign up or request further information. Sign up is easy: just let Diana Binger or Mike Gordon know you want to participate and whether you want us to pair you with a study partner. If you do want us to pair you with a study partner, please complete the short questionnaire and return it to Diana via email or drop it off in the Bet Torah office.
