

EVERY VOICE COUNTS:

An Evening of Friendship & Conversation in The Aftermath of Recent Worldwide Tragedies

Please join us for an evening of friendship and discussion to create a unified voice that supports a safe, inclusive community.

After hearing from clergy/spiritual leaders from the Presbyterian Church of Mount Kisco, Upper Westchester Muslim Society, Mount Zion Apostolic Church, and Bet Torah, we will meet in small groups to discuss how our own families and friends are being impacted by recent worldwide tragedies and events and determine what next steps we may jointly wish to take.

This program grew organically from the 10th annual Women's Interfaith Tea, hosted by Presbyterian Church of Mount Kisco, and included Upper Westchester Muslim Society, Mount Zion Apostolic Church, and Bet Torah. All who attended were very disturbed about recent worldwide tragedies and sought meaningful ways to address this issue.

Building on the Tea's model of friendship, understanding, and mutual respect, we want to create a unified voice that advocates for a safe, inclusive community.
